

Jesus was so intentional in everything he said and did. As he was walking through the beautiful city of Jericho, disciples in tow, on his way to Jerusalem, blind Bartimaeus recognized him. He called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.” Let’s pick up our next lesson there With Christ in the School of Prayer.

Blind observations

Broad strokes

Be specific!

Application and Conversations:

1. Please send me a text message to 562-900-4446, or email me at revploog@gmail.com in response to the following question: in what ways have you prospered during this season when we've had to do our part to mitigate the COVID-19 virus?
2. How do you know when Jesus wants you to call out to him for help?
3. Recall a time when God urged you to clarify yourself (v.51) as you were praying.
4. How have you been "made well" (v.52) by Jesus?
5. Why do you think God wants you to learn to pray with clear, targeted requests for yourself and others?

Mark 10:46-52

Pastor John Ploog
April 26, 2020

