

Here's your assignment: recall one of your favorite good news - bad news jokes... without researching it on Google during this message. I for one enjoy this kind of humor, but I will have to wait for your submittals for my next good laugh or "hmm... something to think about" moment. How do you talk about the gospel? How do you talk about it even when you are talking to someone who may not even know him? What makes the gospel of Christ such unmistakably good news? Why are you convinced that it really is good news, meant for everyone? How do you recognize the good news against the schemes of a counterfeit gospel salvation?

God wants to be confident in the gospel of our Savior.

Personal Application and Conversations

1. So, by now you have had the time to recall some good news – bad news humor. How did the threat of today’s cancel-culture affect your decision to save this assignment for another day?
2. The word “gospel” means “good news.” What makes you so confident in the gospel of Christ?
3. What were the circumstances that drew you to the gospel?
4. How do you talk about the gospel when you are among friends in Christ?
5. How do you talk about the gospel when you are with people who have not yet come to know the Savior?
6. What is your response to the demands of law in the context of salvation?
7. How do you recognize the good news against the schemes of counterfeit salvation?
