

Personal Application and Conversations

1. “Egyptian armies” (difficult times) come in all shapes and sizes. What “Egyptian army” are you focusing on in your life’s journey?
2. Why is life so hard? Why do problems persist? Why do we encounter “Egyptian armies?”
3. List other biblical heroes or people you currently know who faced great problems that turned out for their good and God’s glory.
4. Compose a simple prayer to reflect a changed perspective on the way you’re viewing your present “Egyptian army.”
5. Hebrews 12:2 tells us to look to Jesus during times of difficulty. What are some practical ways of doing that during your present set of circumstances?
6. According to John 10:10 and I Peter 5:8 what does Satan aim to do? What are our defenses against his attacks?

Exodus 14

Pastor Dennis Mohler

The cold shroud of night had closed around Jerusalem. In a small room near the temple a man named Asaph was awake. He could not sleep. His mind recalled the miracle at the Red Sea. Later he recorded his thoughts in Psalm 77.

*Your way was through the sea,
your path through the great waters;
yet your footprints were unseen.
You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.*

Psalm 77:19-20

God means for you to be where you are.

Be more concerned for God's glory than for your relief.

Acknowledge your enemy but keep your eyes on the Lord.
